BSNL STILL BEARS THE BRUNT OF WRONG DECISIONS

Hundreds of wrong decisions taken by the Government before and after BSNL was formed can be cited as reasons for BSNL lagging in the competition to gain financially. We cannot but avoid mentioning a few of them since the question is now being raised on the affordability of BSNL to bear the burden of additional expenditure on account of next pay revision of its employees.

Those who raise this question must remember that one of the grounds for creation of BSNL was to use it as a medium to provide services in rural and inaccessible areas incurring huge losses, where no private service provider was ready to move in. Had BSNL not taken up this commercially unviable but socially important task on its shoulder, the rural economy would have been in shambles. The dream of a 'digital India' would have remained in paper. After making BSNL to play this important role without any financial support, Department of Telecommunications cannot take shelter under the affordability issue to delay pay revision of BSNL employees. Moreover, it must remember that despite existence of similar affordability clause in 2nd PRC Report, DOT allowed pay revision of MTNL employees with 30% fitment benefit – though MTNL was incurring huge losses years after years.

BSNL is still bearing the brunt of a totally wrong decision taken by the Government earlier to carve out two important megacities Delhi and Mumbai from DOT and form MTNL and then not allowing BSNL to provide services in these two mega cities having huge number of creamy customers. Sam Pitroda-led Telecom Commission certainly was not right in advising the then Government to form a separate Corporation entity for Delhi and Mumbai. In the process, BSNL is now not having PAN India jurisdiction and being forced to compete with other service providers in an unequal race.

Another major wrong decision by the then Government was to disallow DOT and MTNL to provide cellular mobile services. This sector was made open exclusively for the private operators who merrily expanded their business and made huge profits by forcing the customers to pay Rs. 16/- per minute for outgoing calls and Rs. 8/- per minute for incoming calls. It was only when the subsequent Government allowed MTNL to provide the cellular mobile services, there was a sharp fall in tariff. But it was too late and the private operators used the period when they had the monopoly to have a strong subscriber base and MTNL could not match them. DOT, on its part, paid no attention to provide mobile services in the rest of the country and instead took another wrong decision to invest more on landline connections with a slogan to wipe out the 'waiting-lists'. But it was proved too costly since the customers started surrendering land lines and moved for mobile services. Thus, there was a total mess up. This episode certainly sounds a big scam.

Then came BSNL with much promises from the Government for financial support. It inherited a totally mismanaged and ruined telecom services. Despite this, it started from zero and under the leadership of the then CMD Prithipal Singh rose to the second highest position in mobile service sector in a short period. But alas! BSNL's efforts to procure required equipment to expand in this sector failed time and again due to repeated cancellation of tendering process. DOT, as the administrative Department, once again failed to help BSNL to come out of this.

Therefore, the Department of Telecommunication has no moral right to question BSNL on affordability issue and must own up its responsibility. Sooner DOT realizes this, it is better for one and all. Hope DOT will now consider the proposal sent by BSNL for pay revision of the executives of BSNL with open mind and accord approval at the earliest.

The meeting was presided over by Shri M D Bhasin, Branch President. Shri S Basu, General Secretary, who was on his personal visit to Chandigarh, also attended the meeting. The President welcomed General Secretary and all other members. Branch Secretary Shri M K Kalra spoke on ongoing important issues and requested General Secretary to throw light, among other issues, on the court case regarding pay and pension arrears, revision of pension, implementation of 3rd PRC for pay revision of CPSE executives, BSNLMRS etc. Shri Lokesh Chopra, former Organising Secretary (North), AIBSNLREA also spoke on the occasion. General Secretary stated that the Association is going for legal action on pay and pension arrears issue following wrong implementation of the DPE Orders on revised fitment benefit by allowing merger of 50% IDA effectively amount to 78.2% IDA by the DOT and declaring the fitment benefit of 78.2% IDA as 'notional' in the pension revision Orders. He informed the house that the Petition is nearing finalization and would be filed in Supreme Court very shortly. The Association is filing the case on representative capacity for the past and future pensioners as well since all sections of the BSNL pensioners have been deprived of one or the other legitimate benefit. For strategic reasons, some Vakalatnama have been collected from different branches along with the Tables showing their individual losses which are now with the advocate and will be used for the case. As regards pay scale revision of the BSNL Executives, the proposal for pay revision with 15% fitment benefit is moving in right direction. He said that we must keep in mind that the executives of MTNL, despite huge losses recorded years after years, were granted pay revision as per 2nd PRC recommendations with 30% fitment benefit. Moreover, while ordering payment of pension to the MTNL employees by the Government, it was decided by the Government itself that the pay scales of the MTNL employees will be brought at the level of pay scales of BSNL employees during implementation of 3rd PRC recommendations. This will be possible only by giving the benefits of 3rd PRC recommended pay scales to the BSNL Executives and revising their pay scales upwardly. He said that, as is the normal practice, some sections of the DOT will certainly raise many queries. But BSNL would be able to reply them. He said that Pension revision would follow the pay scale revision of the BSNL executives. This time, pension revision will not take much time since the process is now more streamlined. Regarding BSNLMRS, he said once the pay scales are revised, the existing eligibility limit and other issues will have to be revisited and changes brought in. At that time, the Association will certainly submit its views to BSNL on all points. He added that BSNL, after long years, has restored the scheme for medical claims for outdoor treatment without voucher for the retired employees only. But BSNL is now also reviewing its financial impact. We shall have to wait for the opportune time to seek any change having financial impact. On the issue of extending the recommendations of Pay Commissions in regard to revision of pension to the BSNL pensioners, he said that as per the law of the land, as laid down by Supreme Court, this is not practicable since in this case future pensioners will be adversely affected. Moreover, after absorption, all BSNL optees now ceased to be the Government Servants. Thus Pay Commissions, which are exclusively for Government employees, are not meant for CPSE employees including those in BSNL. He further said that the Association uploaded some useful and detailed analytical articles in its website on this issue and other related issues which are still available. He requested the members to go through them. He thanked all the members for giving him an opportunity to present his views on some important issues. The meeting then concluded after presentation of Vote of Thanks.
